Why Join?

- Lower coaching fees for members
- Free access to courts (although certain limits on times).
- Participate in the Club ballot for Wimbledon tickets (if you're a BT member)
- Represent your club in matches
- Enter the Club's closed tournaments

British Tennis Membership

As an affiliated club, junior members can sign up for British Tennis membership for free and enjoy lots of benefits.

You also need to be a BT member if you want to play for the club. Visit:

www.lta.org.uk/britishtennismembership/

Use of Courts

Junior members can book courts before 6pm. You can also use free courts after 6pm, provided you come off if adult members require them.

The Bookings Diary is on the table in the Clubhouse.

Code of Conduct

Parents are asked to help their child to recognise good performance and attitude and to discourage unfair play.

In matches, juniors are expected to play within the rules and to respect the decisions of officials.

Junior Policy Information is posted in the Clubhouse—please take a look at it.

Coaching

We have a fantastic new coach - Adam Swan, who is putting together a full programme for juniors of all standards and ages.

The programme includes mini tennis squads, junior development, futures and performance squads, multi-sport sessions, drills and match-play during term time and tennis camps during the school holidays.

For more information on coaching, please contact Adam direct.
