Photography and Recording of Children Policy

Why it matters?

The main concerns addressed by these guidelines relate to:

- The possible identification of children when a photograph is accompanied by personal information.
- The inappropriate use, adaptation or copying of images for use on child pornography websites.
- The taking of inappropriate photographs or recorded images of children.
- The breach of court orders restricting photography of specific children.

There have been concerns about the risks posed directly and indirectly to children and young people through the use of photographs on sport web sites and other publications when they are accompanied by personal information.

This information can make a child vulnerable to an individual who may wish to 'groom' that child for abuse. Secondly, photographs can be adapted for inappropriate use. There is evidence of adapted material finding its way onto child pornography sites.

If you would like to discuss the photographing of children at Cirencester Tennis Club further or indeed have any concerns, please contact our Club Welfare Officers, Lindsay Raphael / Etty Wateridge.

LTA Guidelines

Cirencester Tennis Club adopts these LTA guidelines in relation to the Photography and Recording Policy.

Parents, Carers and Spectators

The LTA encourages you to use photographic equipment to capture your child or friend playing tennis.

You are required to register at an event if you wish to use any photographic equipment. The event organiser will ask anyone not registered to stop using photographic equipment and delete any images that may have been taken.

If you have concerns about inappropriate photography, this should be reported immediately to the event organiser, official or welfare officer.

Competition Organisers, Officials and other Professionals

If you are running an event, the LTA requests that you ensure that all parents, carers and spectators who want to use photographic equipment are registered with you.

If you wish to take photographs at an event or publish images following an event you must ensure you have consent from parents, carers or the individual (if over 18) prior to the event and that you are registered with the event organiser.

If you see any individual taking photographs which you deem to be intrusive or inappropriate you must address this in line with safeguarding procedures.

Children

It is okay for a photographer to take photos when you are on court, as long as your parent or carer has told the photographer that it is.

If you see someone taking photos or recording that makes you feel worried, tell your parent or carer, or the event organiser or welfare officer straight away.

Consent

In order to take photographs or videos, prior to any event, you should ensure you have obtained consent from:

- The event organiser.
- Parents, carers of all children involved.

In order to obtain consent, you must explain why you are taking the images and what they will be used for. This ensures that parents or carers are giving informed consent. To achieve this, it is strongly recommended you use the Consent and Emergency Contact Form.

Image and video content

All children featured in images or videos must be:

- Appropriately dressed, with clothing covering their torso from their neck to thighs, e.g. a t-shirt and shorts or skirt.
- Featured with people engaging in tennis.
- In groups with other children or adults where possible.
- Representative of the diversity across tennis, with regard to age, gender, ethnicity and disability.

Any inappropriate use of images should be reported to the LTA Safe and Inclusive Tennis Team and the Police.

Photographing and Videoing in Public Spaces

There is no law prohibiting the photography of individuals (including children) in public places. Subject to the below, individuals are permitted to:

- Take photos of children without the consent of the parents/legal guardians, using a normal lens.
- Keep photos taken; however, if the person wishes to publish a recognisable image of the child, they are required to gain consent from the parents/legal guardian.

The above is permitted, provided the behaviour does not amount to harassment or a breach of privacy. Whether the behaviour amounts to harassment or a breach of privacy will depend on the facts in each case.

In practice, you might not want to get into whether there has been a breach of privacy or if the conduct amounted to harassment. If an individual is taking photographs in a public space and this is making the children, coach or parents uncomfortable, it is best to approach the photographer and politely request they stop taking photographs and remind them they are required to gain consent from parents if they wish to publish any photos.

NB: If the photographer has a long lens, they should be informed they are not allowed to use this when taking photos of people in public spaces.

Publishing Images

Adequate thought is given to the selection of images in publicity material both printed and online (including social media). Where possible, a technique such as “watermarking” on the images may be used.

All children featured can only be:

- Identified using their first name, although it is preferable that their name is not given.
- Printed or uploaded with written consent from parents/carers.
- Shown engaging in tennis activities.

It is recommended that the following is avoided:

- Images of children on their own.
- Images of children outside a tennis environment.
- Streaming any content directly to a website.
- Using any images for which you have not obtained consent (please use the Consent and Emergency Contact Form).

Coaches, teachers and others may use video equipment as a legitimate coaching method. Tennis players and their parents or carers should be made aware that this forms part of the tennis programme and that any recording will be destroyed after use.

This Policy is reviewed every year (or earlier if there is a change in national legislation).
