Junior report

Zach has agreed to help with adding more for juniors at the cub outside of Phoenix Tennis. Plans are to add some social match play and hopefully enter some junior teams into local events.

With his strong relationship with Jess the local tournament organiser we hope to see the juniors progressing up the competition ladder over the next year. But also aid juniors with their first steps into competition as it's tough starting to compete as he knows.